

THE HICKMAN COURIER,
— PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY — GEORGE WARREN,
HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.
Office—Helix Building, Clinton Street.
The Oldest Newspaper in Western Kentucky.
George Warren, Editor.
Price of Subscription, $2.
FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1879

Professional Cards.
W. T. Plummer, M. D.
OFFERS HIS PROFESSIONAL SERVICES to the citizens of Hickman and vicinity.
Office up stairs over Buchanan's store.
nov14-15

Dr. H. C. Buck,
OFFERS HIS PROFESSIONAL SERVICES to the citizens of Hickman and adjoining country. Office at Dr. Galletti's old stand.
nov23

Dr. J. N. Outten,
Has Located in Hickman, Ky.
Office in Schu building next door to barber shop.
nov8-78

FARIS & GOBER,
Physicians and Surgeons.
OFFER their professional services to the citizens of Hickman and vicinity.
Office, in Laclede Block.
Dr. Faris' residence corner of Ohio and Wellington streets.
Dr. Faris' residence Moulton street, 3d door East from Baptist church.
jan1-17

H. A. & R. T. Tyler,
Attorneys at Law,
HICKMAN KENTUCKY.
WILL ATTEND TO ALL BUSINESS entrusted to their care.
Office—Hick Block.
nov8-78

C. L. RANDLE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Collector, Real Estate Agent,
HICKMAN, KY.
Will attend promptly to all business entrusted him in Southwestern Kentucky and Northwestern Tennessee. Special attention given to the investigation of Land Titles, and the purchase and sale of Real Estate.
Jan1-17

Grocers.
W. DIESTELBRINK,
Family Groceries.
No space to name all articles, but no trouble to show goods.
Coke and etc. at the corner of Troy and Moscow Avenue, East Hickman, Ky.
Jan25

A. M. DEBOW & CO.,
(At the Old Benny Stand.)
KEEPS all kinds of staple and fancy groceries, and Confectioneries. Will be pleased to see their old customers, and will sell them in price and quality. Call and see us. "Quick Sales and Small Profits" won't be oversteered.
Jan1-17

W. L. McCUTCHEN,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCER,
Hickman, Kentucky.
Keeps on hand a general stock of all kinds of groceries,
at lowest cash prices.
July28-76

Boot and Shoemakers.
FRITZ SCHROEDER,
FASHIONABLE
BOOT AND SHOE MAKER.
SHOP—North West corner of Moscow and Troy Avenues, East Hickman, Ky.
Satisfaction guaranteed.
may9

H. F. Fethe,
Boot and Shoe Maker,
HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.
Ladies and Gent's boots and shoes made to order, and in the latest fashion. Invaluable patches put on, which last longer than when sewed. All ask a trial.
Shop—next door to City Barber Shop.
feb7-78

JOHN G. GRIFFIN,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Over Holcomb's Drug Store, has just received the latest New York and Paris fashions. Also, a fine lot of samples of French and American goods.
may1

J. W. CORMAN & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Stoves, Castings, Tinware,
House-Furnishing Goods.
Best brands Cooking and Heating Stoves.
Job Work done to order.
feb7-78

WEIMER'S
Beer and Billiard Saloon.
PICKETS, OYSTERS, BOLOGNE SAUSAGES, Sardines, Pickles, Candy, Fruit, Cheese, Crackers, etc., specialties. The best of Cigars and Tobacco.
nov15-78

WARNER & MEACHAM'S
RESTAURANT.
MEALS AT ALL HOURS, ONLY 25c.
Oysters and all kinds of Confectioneries always to be had.
420-78

HICKMAN MARBLE WORKS
HICKMAN, KY.
B. C. Ramage,
DEALER IN ITALIAN AND AMERICAN MARBLE
MONUMENTS, TOMB AND GRAVE STONES.
HAVING received a fine lot of American and Italian Marble, I am prepared to fill all orders. Call and examine our work.
Orders from the country promptly filled.
may25

ESTABLISHED 1859.

List of Appointments
OF CANDIDATES FOR STATE SENATE.
Henry George and J. A. J. Watson, candidates for the State Senate, will address the people at the following times and places. All are respectfully invited to attend:

FULTON COUNTY.
Sassafraz Ridge, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Hickman, June 24, at night.
Cayce's Station, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Ladgerton, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Fulton Station, June 24, at night.
CLAY COUNTY.
Pilot Oak, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Cuba, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Farmingington, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Pantner Creek, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Synonia, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Bor's Station, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Kassas, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Lowes Road, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Pancys Farm, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
HICKMAN COUNTY.
Pelo, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
June 24, at night.
Columbus, June 24, at night.
Moscow, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Needmore, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Water Valley, Graves county, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Wingo Station, Graves county, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Hickman, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Pryorburg, Graves county, June 24, 2 o'clock, p. m.
Clinton, Hickman county, 31 Monday in Mayfield, Graves county, 31 Monday in July.

JUDGE BOONE.
The Late Member of Congress from first District.
Unhobbles the Greenback Candidate for Governor.
Democracy and the Financial Question.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

The Princeton Banner, makes an article giving an account of the opening of the Greenback campaign by Judge Boone, non-commissioned at Marion, Crittenden county, before a vast concourse of people and how Judge Boone "unhobbled" in and captured the crowd. We make the following extracts:

A glance at him will convince any man that he is a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence. His general appearance is that of a man of great intellect and countenance indicate kindness of heart and pure benevolence.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1879.

WAR IN KENTUCKY.
The outbreak in Carter County, Bushwhacking Resumed in Breathitt County.

[Special Dispatch to the Enquirer.]
Reports from the Underwood war to-day are of a more startling nature than disclosed by my dispatch last night. It is alleged that the Holbrooks are at the head of the party who attacked the Underwoods on Thursday last. The conduct of the Underwood party for the past two years has gained them many friends. They have been quiet, and have made no showing of a disposition to again open hostilities, with the exception of some time with his rifle and revolvers prepared to meet and defend himself against such men as the Sheriff of Louisville county and his posse, which may have led the opposite party to open hostilities. The Underwood war is now a quiet, gentlemanly fellow, and who is a friend when he professes to be, and an enemy in the full sense when once turned to war. He has been apparently trying to keep down the Underwood war, and has been making a show of friendship to his family and the Holbrooks, Stamper and Glover party. He has made his headquarters at his father's (George Underwood) home the place familiarly known as Fort Underwood, from the manner in which the house is constructed.

The Sheriff and posse of this county went to the place two years since to arrest the parties, then believed to be hiding about Underwood's place, but when they were met by a volley of rifle and musket balls from the numerous port holes in the house. The posse retired in bad order to the woods near by and held the place in a state of siege for several days, but without success. They did not dare to show themselves from their place of concealment for fear of the ever-ready rifle of the Underwoods, they soon retired under cover of darkness to avoid the arrival of the Covington Light Guard Company, which soon quieted the factions.

Most of the men in the Upper Tyron county, in the localities of the trouble, are out in the woods armed and on the alert for their enemies. Reports here this morning were that the old Chief George had been killed on Sunday morning by the Glover brothers. Later reports, which are believed to be reliable, are that the old man was badly wounded, but not as yet dead. Some of the best information and least excited men believe this to be the beginning of a terrible outbreak, of which we will not soon see the end.

Breathitt county is again on deck with another murder. They have again commenced bushwhacking. On Friday afternoon Andrew Carpenter, a witness for the Commonwealth against the Underwood party, was shot and killed while on his way to work. As long as one of these fellows can get sight of an enemy, and can shoot from the brush, you will be furnished with murder reports from bloody Breathitt.

Parties referred to as the southern party, who are the cause of the trouble, are now being hunted by the officers of John McFarland, Jr., a notorious outlaw and confederate, who has been holding forth in Carter and Elliott counties for some time past. He is armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and is a desperate fighter with the officers, resulting in his being wounded in the arm and leg. The officers were informed that a number of McFarland's pals were at a point on the road leading to Grayson's place, and they went there. The officers, clad then in traveling attire, he will be put in the Covington jail for safe keeping, to be held for trial in the United States Court.

PRO TEM SALARIES.
[The Trigg County Democrat.]
The salary of the pro tem judges of the Trigg County Circuit Court, Common Pleas, and Criminal Judges, a salary of $3,000 each per year. It is very generally conceded that this sum is too much by at least $1,000 for the services they render. Yet the people at large have but little idea of the amount of the salary paid in addition to the regular salary of $3,000 for pro tem judges in the various districts of the State. The last auditor's report shows that in Judge Robertson's district the salary paid was $3,138.00; in Judge Garman's, $3,250.00; in Judge Owsley's, $3,427.00; in Judge Hunt's, $3,229.00; in Judge Drake's, $3,436.00; in Judge White's, $3,250.00; in Judge Beamer's, $3,418.00; and in Judge McManama's, $3,418.00. These figures taken at face value, the report will show how great abuse is creeping into this matter of judicial salaries. The entire sum paid in 1878 for pro tem judges' salaries footed up the enormous sum of $7,358.00. In most cases the extra salaries are occasioned on account of the negligent absence of the regular judge and in some cases on account of the drunkenness of the judge. This is a leakage in the public treasury that should at once be stopped. These pro tem salaries should be deducted from the salary of the regular judge, whose negligence in nine cases out of ten occasions the necessity of a pro tem. This indeed was and is the law. This indeed was and is the law. This indeed was and is the law.

Breathitt's Latest.
[Greenup Independent Morgan Letter.]
We are reliably informed that on Saturday of last week, Breathitt added another to her list of murders. It seems that on that day Mr. Carpenter, who lives on Quicksand, had a slight difficulty (worldly) with one of Esq. Davis' sons, who was visiting him. In the heat of the moment, serious results followed. On the fence in front of his residence, noticed two sons of Esq. Davis coming down the road, armed, one with a shot gun and the other with a pistol, and asked them where they were going so well armed, to which they answered: "We're going duck hunting, and want to settle all claims against us." Further conversation was indulged in, and one of the Davises asked them to go to the house to see that Carpenter knocked him down with a clubbed rifle, whereupon the other Davis emptied both barrels of his shot gun into the body of Carpenter, and Davis No. 1 recovering came forward and shot him three times with his pistol, while his brother was trying to get him on the ground. We suppose a good dose of State purgative, in the form of the military, will have to take up its residence in Breathitt before the life taking mania is cured, or this nuisance abated. What is said is as sure as I did. We'll then, your reverence, I'll say, "Mrs. Molony, there's your pig."

The Champion Criminal State.
[Winchester Sun.]
Ohio has come to the front as the champion criminal State. The Commonwealth publishes every column a report of murders, robberies, seductions and other crimes committed in Ohio. So much for Deacon Smith—with his persimmon.

A Steam Preventive of Yellow Fever.
Richard Thompson, of the navy department, is favorably inclined to the scheme for the prevention of yellow fever. A gentleman has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the naval department the efficacy of the ancient mariner of the Vabash, that he can construct a machine that will keep a vessel at a temperature of 70 degrees Fahrenheit, and will prevent the arrival of infected parties. The inventor claims that his heated steam will destroy every vestige of a miasmatic life on board a ship, including the yellow fever germ. Uncle Clark has lost his faith in the freezing process. As long as one of these fellows can get sight of an enemy, and can shoot from the brush, you will be furnished with murder reports from bloody Breathitt.

Parties referred to as the southern party, who are the cause of the trouble, are now being hunted by the officers of John McFarland, Jr., a notorious outlaw and confederate, who has been holding forth in Carter and Elliott counties for some time past. He is armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and is a desperate fighter with the officers, resulting in his being wounded in the arm and leg. The officers were informed that a number of McFarland's pals were at a point on the road leading to Grayson's place, and they went there. The officers, clad then in traveling attire, he will be put in the Covington jail for safe keeping, to be held for trial in the United States Court.

Indian Marriages.
[Chicago Times Letter.]
The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1879.

WAR IN KENTUCKY.
The outbreak in Carter County, Bushwhacking Resumed in Breathitt County.

[Special Dispatch to the Enquirer.]
Reports from the Underwood war to-day are of a more startling nature than disclosed by my dispatch last night. It is alleged that the Holbrooks are at the head of the party who attacked the Underwoods on Thursday last. The conduct of the Underwood party for the past two years has gained them many friends. They have been quiet, and have made no showing of a disposition to again open hostilities, with the exception of some time with his rifle and revolvers prepared to meet and defend himself against such men as the Sheriff of Louisville county and his posse, which may have led the opposite party to open hostilities. The Underwood war is now a quiet, gentlemanly fellow, and who is a friend when he professes to be, and an enemy in the full sense when once turned to war. He has been apparently trying to keep down the Underwood war, and has been making a show of friendship to his family and the Holbrooks, Stamper and Glover party. He has made his headquarters at his father's (George Underwood) home the place familiarly known as Fort Underwood, from the manner in which the house is constructed.

The Sheriff and posse of this county went to the place two years since to arrest the parties, then believed to be hiding about Underwood's place, but when they were met by a volley of rifle and musket balls from the numerous port holes in the house. The posse retired in bad order to the woods near by and held the place in a state of siege for several days, but without success. They did not dare to show themselves from their place of concealment for fear of the ever-ready rifle of the Underwoods, they soon retired under cover of darkness to avoid the arrival of the Covington Light Guard Company, which soon quieted the factions.

Most of the men in the Upper Tyron county, in the localities of the trouble, are out in the woods armed and on the alert for their enemies. Reports here this morning were that the old Chief George had been killed on Sunday morning by the Glover brothers. Later reports, which are believed to be reliable, are that the old man was badly wounded, but not as yet dead. Some of the best information and least excited men believe this to be the beginning of a terrible outbreak, of which we will not soon see the end.

Breathitt county is again on deck with another murder. They have again commenced bushwhacking. On Friday afternoon Andrew Carpenter, a witness for the Commonwealth against the Underwood party, was shot and killed while on his way to work. As long as one of these fellows can get sight of an enemy, and can shoot from the brush, you will be furnished with murder reports from bloody Breathitt.

Parties referred to as the southern party, who are the cause of the trouble, are now being hunted by the officers of John McFarland, Jr., a notorious outlaw and confederate, who has been holding forth in Carter and Elliott counties for some time past. He is armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and is a desperate fighter with the officers, resulting in his being wounded in the arm and leg. The officers were informed that a number of McFarland's pals were at a point on the road leading to Grayson's place, and they went there. The officers, clad then in traveling attire, he will be put in the Covington jail for safe keeping, to be held for trial in the United States Court.

PRO TEM SALARIES.
[The Trigg County Democrat.]
The salary of the pro tem judges of the Trigg County Circuit Court, Common Pleas, and Criminal Judges, a salary of $3,000 each per year. It is very generally conceded that this sum is too much by at least $1,000 for the services they render. Yet the people at large have but little idea of the amount of the salary paid in addition to the regular salary of $3,000 for pro tem judges in the various districts of the State. The last auditor's report shows that in Judge Robertson's district the salary paid was $3,138.00; in Judge Garman's, $3,250.00; in Judge Owsley's, $3,427.00; in Judge Hunt's, $3,229.00; in Judge Drake's, $3,436.00; in Judge White's, $3,250.00; in Judge Beamer's, $3,418.00; and in Judge McManama's, $3,418.00. These figures taken at face value, the report will show how great abuse is creeping into this matter of judicial salaries. The entire sum paid in 1878 for pro tem judges' salaries footed up the enormous sum of $7,358.00. In most cases the extra salaries are occasioned on account of the negligent absence of the regular judge and in some cases on account of the drunkenness of the judge. This is a leakage in the public treasury that should at once be stopped. These pro tem salaries should be deducted from the salary of the regular judge, whose negligence in nine cases out of ten occasions the necessity of a pro tem. This indeed was and is the law. This indeed was and is the law. This indeed was and is the law.

Breathitt's Latest.
[Greenup Independent Morgan Letter.]
We are reliably informed that on Saturday of last week, Breathitt added another to her list of murders. It seems that on that day Mr. Carpenter, who lives on Quicksand, had a slight difficulty (worldly) with one of Esq. Davis' sons, who was visiting him. In the heat of the moment, serious results followed. On the fence in front of his residence, noticed two sons of Esq. Davis coming down the road, armed, one with a shot gun and the other with a pistol, and asked them where they were going so well armed, to which they answered: "We're going duck hunting, and want to settle all claims against us." Further conversation was indulged in, and one of the Davises asked them to go to the house to see that Carpenter knocked him down with a clubbed rifle, whereupon the other Davis emptied both barrels of his shot gun into the body of Carpenter, and Davis No. 1 recovering came forward and shot him three times with his pistol, while his brother was trying to get him on the ground. We suppose a good dose of State purgative, in the form of the military, will have to take up its residence in Breathitt before the life taking mania is cured, or this nuisance abated. What is said is as sure as I did. We'll then, your reverence, I'll say, "Mrs. Molony, there's your pig."

The Champion Criminal State.
[Winchester Sun.]
Ohio has come to the front as the champion criminal State. The Commonwealth publishes every column a report of murders, robberies, seductions and other crimes committed in Ohio. So much for Deacon Smith—with his persimmon.

A Steam Preventive of Yellow Fever.
Richard Thompson, of the navy department, is favorably inclined to the scheme for the prevention of yellow fever. A gentleman has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the naval department the efficacy of the ancient mariner of the Vabash, that he can construct a machine that will keep a vessel at a temperature of 70 degrees Fahrenheit, and will prevent the arrival of infected parties. The inventor claims that his heated steam will destroy every vestige of a miasmatic life on board a ship, including the yellow fever germ. Uncle Clark has lost his faith in the freezing process. As long as one of these fellows can get sight of an enemy, and can shoot from the brush, you will be furnished with murder reports from bloody Breathitt.

Parties referred to as the southern party, who are the cause of the trouble, are now being hunted by the officers of John McFarland, Jr., a notorious outlaw and confederate, who has been holding forth in Carter and Elliott counties for some time past. He is armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and is a desperate fighter with the officers, resulting in his being wounded in the arm and leg. The officers were informed that a number of McFarland's pals were at a point on the road leading to Grayson's place, and they went there. The officers, clad then in traveling attire, he will be put in the Covington jail for safe keeping, to be held for trial in the United States Court.

Indian Marriages.
[Chicago Times Letter.]
The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

The ceremony of marriage among some of the blanket Indians—the Sacs and Foxes, for example—is very touching and effective. It has also the character of being a love match, and is a liking for some of the beauty, arrays himself in his best blanket and repairs to her bed-side after "devery eve" has set in. If the girl dislikes him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother, and if she loves him she calls her mother.

